

Oral presentations:

- From Knowledge to Health Policy: Exploring Knowledge Translation Mechanisms in the Western Cape Provincial Health System of South Africa. A Edwards et al. [Wednesday, 10/10, 11:00-12.30 PM, ACC Room 3A]
- Red Zone Paramedics, a film about the everyday experiences of delivering emergency care. L Brady.  [Wednesday, 10/10, 11.00-12.30 PM, ACC Room 11B]
- Innovative strategies for community participation in improving maternal health service provision in rural Eastern Cape health facilities, South Africa. M Lembani et al. [Wednesday, 10/10, 14:00-15.30 PM, ACC Room 4B]
- Who Are We? The Role of Team, Professional and Managerial Relationships in Collective Leadership Practices in District Hospitals, Cape Town, South Africa. D Okello et al. [Wednesday, 10/10, 16.00-17.30 PM, ACC Room 4B]
- Leaving no woman behind: The influence of gender on the career progression, perspectives and experiences of South African middle managers. M Shung-King et al. [Wednesday, 10/10, 16.00-17.30 PM, ACC Room 11C]
- Models of engagement between the state and the faith-based health sector in Sub-Saharan Africa: A systematic review. E Whyte et al. [Thursday, 11/10, 14.00-15.30 PM, ACC Room 4A]
- The crowded space of local accountability for maternal, newborn and child health: a case study of two South African districts. F Mukinda et al. [Thursday, 14.00-15.30 PM, ACC Room 11A]

Posters:

- Strengthening health systems for inclusive, equitable and just societies: Perspectives on values-based health systems. E Whyte et al. [Wednesday, 13.15 PM, Poster number: 215, ACC Hall 2M]
- Strengthening health system responsiveness to community and citizen feedback in LMICs: a systematic review of the conceptual and evaluative terrain. J Olivier et al. [Wednesday, 13.25 PM, Poster number: 147]
- The long-term access barriers of retention in hiv/aids care faced by patients living with HIV/AIDS in northern Tanzania: The cost of stigma, loyalty and preference. C Mhina et al. [Wednesday, 15.30 PM, Poster number: 220, ACC Hall 2M]
- Intersectoral collaboration for health in the Western Cape Province: competing frames during early stages of policy development. I Okeyo et al. [Thursday, 10.30 AM, Poster number: 292, ACC Hall 2M]
- A Systematic Evidence Map of Knowledge Translation Mechanisms, Outcomes, Facilitators and Barriers in African Health Systems. A Edwards et al. [Thursday, 15.30 PM, Poster number: 439]

Satellite sessions:

- The practice of embedded health policy and systems research in LMICs: individuals, organisations and networks building capacity and trust over time [Tuesday, 09/10, 09.00-11.00 AM, Exhibition Centre, Room 22]
- Advancing the conduct and analysis of case studies in health policy and systems research: comparing and applying different methodological approaches [Tuesday, 09/10, 13.00-17.00 PM, Exhibition Centre, Room 18]

Organised sessions:

- Addressing the politics of policy change in taking action on inequity and social exclusion. [Wednesday, 10/10, 14.00-15.30 PM, ACC Hall 2L]
- Using media to facilitate bottom-up accountability, health system responsiveness, and participatory decision-making processes: the role of citizen journalists, social activists and the media. [Wednesday, 10/10, 16.00-17.30 PM, ACC Main Auditorium]
- Launch of the Health Policy Analysis Reader. [Thursday, 11/10, 7.45-8.30 AM, ACC Room 4A]
- Growing the 'p' in HPSR: Southern-led networking to strengthen analysis of health policy change. [Thursday, 11/10, 14.00-15.30 PM, ACC Hall 2F]
- Is there a place for faith-based health services in a modern UHC-oriented LMIC health system? [Thursday, 11/10, 11.00-12.30 PM, ACC Room 1C]
- New frontiers in community-based health systems: experiences in the collaborative governance of innovations that expand access. [Friday, 9.00-10.30 AM, ACC Hall 2E]
- Community embeddedness: How community health actors in diverse health system contexts negotiate between government and community needs, values and relationships. [Friday, 14.00-15.30, ACC Hall 2L]